From our President Alice D’Souza

Having just celebrated a wonderful Rosh Hashanah service and Yom Kippur prepared by the Ritual Committee, we are all full of renewed energy. The music sung by the Humanaires was indeed superb and uplifting. The New Year sharing of food and conversation was a joy. Amy Eliezer, with the help of several other members, did an outstanding job.

I must make mention of all the wonderful kugel baked by so many talented cooks for Break-the-Fast. Delicious and all so different, just like us.

I can’t believe school has started and summer is over, but not so quick - the heat is still here. Those of us who traveled far and wide over the summer are home, and in the next month the snowbirds will be returning.

By now you have seen the Program and Education programs that your committees have planned for the year. We hope you will find them stimulating. This is a reminder that we will be having all our services on Saturdays until February 5, 2016. Many people had told us how difficult it is to drive at night and so we are experimenting with the new times. Your feedback as the year goes on will be welcome.

Our constant request for your help in bringing in new members continues. Remember, if you are happy at CHJ, someone else will be, too. We will be continuing our food drive for All Faiths Food Bank each month starting with our Saturday, October 10 service. An e-blast will be sent out before the service to remind you.

Sponsorship of a program or an oneg is a very good way to recognize a birthday, anniversary or other special occasion. You can sponsor alone or with a friend. It’s a nice thing to do if you can. As a sponsor, you will be honored by your lighting of the candles.

Mark your calendars for Dr. Suzanne Cunningham Dickie, who will be speaking about The Affordable Care Act on October 10. The Education Film series presented by Irene Mirkovic will start on October 6 and run for four consecutive Tuesdays at 2:00 P.M. in Fellowship Hall. Please e-mail or phone in your reservation for one or all four films to the office. Further information about the films is on page 3 in this issue.

We are all looking forward to good health, happiness and microphones that work all the time.

Shalom, Alice D’Souza

Welcome to IRENE’S PICS, the fourth four-part series of EXTRAORDINARY HOLOCAUST FILMS. All films are related to America during or after the Holocaust. Post-film discussion will be facilitated by Irene Mirkovic, Florida Holocaust Museum Docent and Lifelong Learning Academy Instructor in Holocaust Film Studies.

Four films on Tuesdays in October at 2:00 P.M. on October 6, 13, 20, 27, at UNITY, 3023 Proctor Road, Sarasota.

October 6: AMERICA AND THE HOLOCAUST – DECEIT AND INDIFFERENCE. (Documentary 1988, 90 min.) Complex social and political factors shaped America’s response to the Holocaust, from "Kristallnacht" through the liberation of the death camps. For a short time, the US had an opportunity to open its doors, but instead erected a bureaucratic maze that prevented most Jewish refugees from entering the country.

October 13: IMAGINARY WITNESS – HOLLYWOOD AND THE HOLOCAUST. (Documentary 2004, 92 min.) Film directed by Daniel Anker and narrated by Gene Hackman that examines the treatment of the Holocaust in Hollywood films over a period of sixty years and the impact of the films on public perception and thinking.

October 20: PAPER CLIPS. (Documentary 2004, 84 min.) About The Paper Clips Project, by middle school students from the small southeastern Tennessee town of Whitwell, who created a monument for Holocaust victims. It started in 1998 as a simple 8th-grade project to study other cultures, and then evolved into one gaining worldwide attention.

October 27: VARIAN’S WAR. (Docudrama 2000, approx. 2 hours.) New York editor Varian Fry builds an underground network to save European artists and intellectuals from Nazi persecution during World War II. Along with thousands of ordinary citizens, Fry helped to save such notables as Marc Chagall, Heinrich Mann, Max Ernst, Hannah Arendt and André Benton.

We Will Remember Him

Harry S. Scherzer

Harry S. Scherzer, 80, passed away September 1, 2015, after months of medical challenges. He had been a member of CHJ for only a year, but everyone who met him always saw a smile on his face and heard a joke in every sentence. His commanding presence and voice were matched by his broad knowledge and biting wit.

He was born and raised in Massachusetts, attended MIT at age 15, received a B.S. in Chemical and Mechanical Engineering at 19. An air force ROTC member, he then served in the Guided Missile School, teaching NATO officers the mathematics necessary for guidance technology (pre GPS). Thereafter, he returned to MIT’s Sloan Foundation for a master’s degree in business.

The father of two (son, Larry of New Jersey, and a deceased daughter), grandfather of four, Harry was married three times. He was divorced twice and widowed after 27 years of marriage to a concert pianist.

He owned Treville International, an import business, which enabled him to travel broadly and utilize his fluency of many languages. Later in life he became a Certified Financial Planner. He was President of both Temple Am in Parsippany, N.J., and B’nai B’rith in Rochester, N.Y.

He loved teaching and did pro-bono work at the N.J. Department of Labor where he trained laid-off, downsized executives to prepare effective résumés and negotiate salaries. To quote Harry, “A résumé must be written as if it were for Alexander the Great, not for Alexander the Adequate.”

Because of his love of history, Harry became an expert in ancient and medieval coins, especially Islamic ones. He said, “My joy wasn’t related to the owning of coins, but lay in the discovering of their provenance.” On many cruise ships he taught a course on the History of Money. A member of CHJ’s Jewish History group, he continually amazed members with his vast knowledge of ancient history. Classical music, cinema and the sciences were also his passions.

Harry was laid to rest at the Sarasota National Cemetery. His family in N.J. sat shiva the following week.

Important: BackPack for Kids Rosh Hashanah Appeal Report

At CHJ’s Rosh Hashanah service, Len Rosen made an appeal for continuing support of our commitment to the All Faiths Food Bank BackPack for Kids Program. He shared some shocking information about the presence of hunger among children in our own town. Len told us that in 2015-2016, a total of 2555 children received weekend backpacks. Though that seems to be a large number, it represents only 12% of those children eligible. There are in fact over 20,000 children who qualify for free or subsidized meals in Sarasota.

CHJ had reduced our support to 26 children for the 2014-2015 school year because of funds reduced from the previous year. However, the fine response last year with initial donations of $3500, supplemented by $3000 from an anonymous, non-member donor, and further contributions from CHJ members have allowed us to pack for 40 children during this next school year.

We had hoped to increase this to 45 children, adding one child for every $160 over the $3000 contributed during our Rosh Hashanah collection. As of September 15, we have fallen short of our goal. Twenty congregants who returned their envelopes on Rosh Hashanah have contributed a total of $2912. However, many others have taken envelopes home and we have yet to hear from our snowbirds.

Renee Crames, the founder and moving force of our backpack program, will check again in one month. All contributions will be added to the present total and we will increase the number of children for whom we pack by the total contributed at that time.

Snowbirds! Send your contributions to http://www.allfaithsfoodbank.org/how-to-help/make-a-gift or send a check to All Faiths Food Bank, 8171 Blaikie Ct, Sarasota, FL 34240. Note on your check that your contribution is for the CHJ BackPack program.

These children are our neighbors. As Len said on Rosh Hashana, every time you drive past children waiting for a school bus on a Monday, some of them are hungry. Your contributions are tax deductible, and the children will really appreciate your generosity.
Coming Events

Saturday, November 21 at 10:30 A.M.
Thanksgiving Service with The Humanaires and presentations by Denise Cotler on What Hunger Looks Like in Sarasota, and Annie Morrison on Community Haven

After our 10:30 A.M. Thanksgiving Service including the voices of The Humanaires, there will be a brief introduction to the history of Kristallnacht. We will learn what this night brought to two individuals with quite different exposures to the tragic event. There will be a 15-minute period for audience participation.

Laszlo Biro. In 1944 when he was 15, Laszlo Biro and his parents were moved by the Germans from Hungary to an Austrian labor camp. After the war, the family returned home where he continued his education, graduating from Kossuth University with an M.D., and finished a specialization in dermatology. Then he crossed the border and came to America. A nine-month course and an internship at Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, enabled him to be re-licensed in this country.

Joe Newman will share his experience of Kristallnacht from an American perspective. Newman, a CHJ member, was born in Chicago on January 13, 1913. Two years later his family moved to South Bend. He graduated cum laude in Accounting from Notre Dame University and moved to Boston where he had hopes of going to law school; but due to lack of funding he accepted a job with the Social Security Administration. In 1945, he went into private practice as an accountant, retiring in 1979.

Saturday, November 7 at 10:30 A.M.
Kristallnacht Service with The Humanaires and Speakers Laszlo Biro and Joe Newman on A Remembrance

Following our 10:30 A.M. Kristallnacht Service, Denise Cotler of All Faiths Food Bank will speak on What Hunger Looks Like in Sarasota. Cotler joined All Faiths Food Bank in January 2014 as Senior Director of Development. Previously she served as Director of Development for the Jewish Housing Council Foundation, Associate Director for the American Cancer Society and Development Associate for The Jewish Federation of Sarasota-Manatee. Originally from New York City, she has 2 sons, a new husband and stepson, and a dog named Charley.

We will also welcome back Annie Morrison speaking on Community Haven. Morrison is the Co-Founder/Artistic Director of Kaleidoscope Theater, a musical theatre program for persons with developmental differences, and Gotta Van Productions, celebrating solo performances and new small cast plays that illuminate the human condition, especially that of those who are perceived as “other than.”

Community Haven empowers independence and inclusion in all aspects of society for children, teenagers and adults with disabilities by meeting their needs for therapy, education, socialization, housing, fitness, vocational training, job placement and recreation.

SHJ NEWS
We are pleased to tell you that the member newsletter, Humanorah, is now available on the SHJ website at http://www.shj.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/08/Humanorah-37-11.pdf
Enjoy, and Shana Tovah – a good year of health for all.

Humanistic Judaism embraces a human-centered philosophy that combines rational thinking with a celebration of Jewish culture and identity. It affirms that human beings possess the power and responsibility to shape their own lives, and that ethics and morality are not divine in origin but are human responsibilities. Our mission is to meet the needs of humanist, secular Jews as well as their non-Jewish family members/partners and friends in the greater Sarasota and Manatee area.
The Revisionaries
December 19, 2015 at 10:30 A.M. – at Unity in Fellowship Hall

The Revisionaries is a 2012 documentary film about the re-election of Don McLeroy, the former chairman of the Texas Board of Education. The documentary focuses on McLeroy’s opposition to scientifically sound material that he believed should not be taught to Texas students, and to his campaign to insert creationist teaching into public school textbook material requirements.

It also details how the Texas Board's decisions on textbook content influence textbooks across the nation and affect the American culture war, (92 minutes). The Revisionaries was directed by Scott Thurman and produced by Silver Lining Films, Magic Hour Productions and Naked Edge Films.

CHJ’s Inaugural Chavurah Enjoys Dinner & Conversation Together

Meeting once again, our merry group of nine (minus photographer Barney Sack) sits at the Boston’s table ready to lift forks and spirits. Host/hostess shares menu responsibilities with participating members. The host/hostess provides entrée and beverages, and each of the others bring a side dish (as requested). Conversation and wine flow – creating a stimulating and fun evening for all. Consider forming a Chavurah – eight seems like a good number – and contact Renee Crames (383-5056) for assistance.
HUMANAIRES

After a very busy September when we shared beautiful music for the High Holidays with the Congregation (including solos by tenor Robert Lischetti and soprano Susan Gordon), our chorus is moving on to the songs, both old and new, that we will be singing during the rest of this year. Please check the CHJ calendar for the dates when we will be singing. We meet to practice every Wednesday at 2:30 P.M. in the Unity Sanctuary from mid-August to the end of April with our conductor Robert Lischetti. If you love to sing and especially if blending your voice with others gives you joy, then this is the group for you! There is no audition. Please check us out. We are a warm and welcoming group and we'll be delighted to see you.

For further information about being a singer or an associate with The Humanaires, please contact Sandy Cadman at s.g.cadman@hotmail.com or 941-379-9894.

SUNSETTERS

Ours is always an open group that can accommodate an infinite number of people. We meet on the 3rd Sunday every month on Lido Beach — in front of the pavilion. Our only agenda is the sunset. It is very informal and casual. We arrive about 1-1/2 hours prior to sunset. Bring your own picnic dinner (something you can grasp, like a sandwich, because the seagulls are hungry.) Bring chairs, of course. If you’d like to join us, contact Barbara Shapiro at ms.shappy@verizon.net or 365-3756.

BIKERS

Our next bike ride is on Saturday, October 17 at 10:00 AM. We will ride about 1-1/2 hours in scenic Robinson Preserve, Bradenton. Then, continue the ride in the neighboring area visiting the Palma Sola Botanical Park, which has exotic fruit and nut trees, and three lakes. We will lunch together after the ride. For further information please call or e-mail Sandy Siegel: 941-228-8905, or sandrasiegel3600@gmail.com

CHAVURAH

We have two Chavurah groups embarked on new friendships and experiences. Become involved in starting the next Chavurah and enjoy the fellowship, intellectual contact and pleasure of sharing with fellow CHJ members. Contact Renee Crames at Reneecrames@yahoo.com to join or for information.

THE JEWISH HISTORY SEMINAR

From the CHJ History Seminar Archives: “The precursors of today’s up-scale gated communities were the ghettos of Venice and Rome of the 16th-18th centuries -- with one major difference. In those times the gates of the ghettos were locked at night not to keep strangers out but to keep Jews in.”

The History Seminar will meet on Wednesdays October 14th and 28th at Unity at 1 P.M. in classroom B. Readings in the Barnavi Atlas are pp.128 –133 (Oct.14) and pp.134 –139 (Oct 28).

You can never be too thin or know too much about Jewish history. Hope you will join us!

For more information contact Stan Katz at 343-0095 or Terry Langlois at 524-3985.

DIGITAL IMAGING GROUP (DIG)

We meet at 1:30 P.M. on the 3rd Tuesday of every month at The Fountains Cinema, Parking Lot #4. An assignment is made and members e-mail their required pictures, along with the best picture taken during the past 30 days. Photos are projected onto a large screen and editing software is applied to demonstrate possible enhancements. In addition, tutorials are presented with some guidance for the next month’s assignment. Camera functions and general photography tips are addressed. New Members are welcome. For further information contact Jules Altenberg at jules@altenberg.com.
