Human Rights Service & Rev. Roger Fritts Speaking on
The Inherent Worth and Dignity of Every Person

After our 10:30 a.m. Human Rights Service, we will have the pleasure of listening to Rev. Roger Fritts, who will speak on The Inherent Worth and Dignity of Every Person.

Rev. Fritts wrote, "Over the years I have had a number of conversations with men and women concerning this particular statement of affirmation. "Do you really believe," they frequently ask, "in the worth of every human being?" "How," I am often asked, "can you affirm the supreme worth of a Hitler? Do you affirm the supreme worth of every person?" My talk will attempt to answer this question.

Rev. Fritts studied Political Science at Arizona State University, after which he entered the Unitarian Universalist seminary in California. After serving in a number of churches across the country, he was called to serve as the Senior Minister of Cedar Lane Unitarian Church in Bethesda, Maryland, a suburb of Washington, D.C.

After 18 years in Bethesda, in 2011, he accepted a call to serve as minister of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Sarasota.

The Program and Oneg are Sponsored by Fredy Jacobson and "dedicated to the wonderful Board of CHJ and in memory of my husband, Irwin Stupack".

Chanukah Service with the Humanaires, and
Speaker Molly Swift on Sarasota’s Safe Place for GLBT Teens

Following our 7:30 p.m. Chanukah Service and the voices of the Humanaires, Molly Swift will speak to us on Sarasota’s Safe Place for GLBT Teens.

Swift is the Program Coordinator of ALSO Youth, a Sarasota based non-profit whose mission is advocacy, support and outreach for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and asexual youth and their allies. She works directly with youth and their families at ALSO’s drop-in centers in Sarasota and Venice, and leads "ALLY 101" workshops for classrooms and groups of youth, local organizations and professionals. She will be accompanied by a small panel of ALSO Youth Ambassadors who are happy to have a platform to share their experiences.

She first became involved with ALSO Youth as an intern in her third year at New College of Florida and was able to pursue her interests in Psychology and Gender Studies by conducting original research and writing papers on issues related to LGBTQIA (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transsexual, Queer, Intersex, Asexual) youth. Molly is now pursuing a Masters in Social Work at the University of South Florida.

The Oneg is Sponsored by Alice D’Souza
From our President Alice D’Souza

The election is over at last and, sadly, we are a 100% divided country. The words of our President and Hillary Clinton are meant to help us pull together, words well said. We must give the President-elect a chance to see if he can, or even tries, to mend wounds.

Our own Paul Molnar was the featured guest speaker for our Kristallnacht Service, which was overwhelming in its content. I have known only a few survivors of the Shoah and without exception I have marveled at their stories of survival and life after the camps. All of us can listen and think of what they endured, but none of us can ever really know the depth of their pain and sorrow. While Paul spoke you could hear a pin drop, the terror, pain and depths of despair his family endured are unspeakable, but speak he did. He says, “I have dedicated my life to let the world know about the Shoah, so it will never happen again”. Paul is one of the remaining few who represent millions.

Sandi Cooper and her team have been doing a wonderful job on our very meaningful services. Only good things can be said, each and every service is so beautiful. The visit to the Roskamp Institute was well attended and very interesting for all. Thank you Harriet Lane for making all the arrangements.

We have a full season of wonderful guest speakers, education programs and films. Please be sure to read The Connection from cover to cover so nothing is missed. Remember to sign up for movies, free for members and $5.00 for guests. Bring a brown-bag dinner and a drink of your choice.

Please remember we are looking for a person or persons to replace Jo Arora who works on our newsletter. She will be finished in July and is more than willing to train a replacement.

We need helpers for the onegs. Please contact the office or myself if you can help. Thank you. There are still plenty of opportunities to sponsor a program, ritual, oneg or education program. So many have done so much, CHJ thanks all of you for your generosity.

Chanukah is fast upon us, the happy time of lights, fun and latkes. We celebrate Chanukah as an eight-day holiday commemorating the rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem after the successful Maccabean revolt against the Seleucid Empire in the 2nd Century. Chanukah is one of our happier celebrations and we really need the fun, light and happiness now.

Share that light and happiness of the Holiday with friends and with a smile.

Shalom and Shanti,

Alice

DAVID HOULE, FUTURIST: This Spaceship Earth

Sunday, January 15, 2017 at 3:00 – 5:30 p.m. at Unity

David Houle is a futurist, thinker and speaker. He spent more than 20 years in media and entertainment, including being part of the senior executive team that created MTV, Nickelodeon, VH1, and CNN Headline News. For the last eight years Houle has been speaking and writing about forecasting and analyzing the future. In 2013 he launched his site futurewow.com which is his curated visual look into the future. He is one of the top futurists and futurist keynote speakers in the world.

Houle’s acclaimed presentation on climate change, This Spaceship Earth, and the need for humanity to develop “Crew Consciousness” as the only real way to move as rapidly as possible to collectively face the single biggest threat facing us, was triggered by his seventh book of the same name.

Houle is Futurist in Residence and Guest lecturer at the Ringling College of Art and Design. He is Honorary President and futurist of the Future Business School of China.

CHJ EDUCATION SERIES PROGRAMS

Saturday, December 17 at 3:00 – 5:30 p.m at Unity

VIOLINS OF HOPE (60 mins.) features Israeli violin maker Amnon Weinstein, who has devoted the past 20 years to restoring violins recovered from the Holocaust. Some were played by Jewish prisoners in concentration camps, others belonged to the Klezmer musical culture. Behind each violin is a unique and inspiring story. The violin has formed an important aspect of Jewish culture for centuries, but during the Holocaust, it assumed extraordinary roles. For some it was a liberator; for others, a savior that spared their lives; and for many, it provided comfort in mankind’s darkest hour. Above all, the violins of the Holocaust represented optimism for the future.

Weinstein visited Cleveland at the invitation of the Jewish community. Some of the violins were used by the Cleveland Orchestra in a performance conducted by Franz Welzer. Mike Vendeland, son of CHJ members Jack and Linda Vendeland, is the production manager at WVIZ/PBS where the DVD was produced in 2016.

Note: The Jewish Federation of Sarasota-Manatee will be holding programs related to Violins of Hope - February 1 – 16, 2017, after which showings will only be held in large metropolitan communities.

Movie: Menachem & Fred

Saturday, January 7 at 10:30 a.m. at Unity

JANUARY 7: Menachem & Fred. (Documentary, 2008, 90 mins.) Fred Raymes, who died in 2013, had been a longtime dedicated CHJ member. He was a Holocaust survivor, and co-author of a memoir written with his brother, Are the Trees in Bloom Over There? The book’s title came from a line his mother had written to her sons, Menachem and Fred, while she was in a concentration camp. The book was the springboard for the documentary Menachem & Fred that subsequently won the Cinema for Peace award in Germany in 2009. The film accompanies the brothers on an emotionally charged journey through which an unexpected relationship develops with the son of the Nazi who deported their family.

CHJ Winter Movie Series
Saturdays, 4:00—7:00 p.m., January 21, February 18 and March 18 at Unity

Bring your own favorite Brown-bag meal.
After the movies we will enjoy our meals and conversation with friends.
Bottled water will be provided. Feel free to bring something stronger, if desired.

JANUARY 21: HESTER STREET. (1975. 90 min. No subtitles for the hearing impaired.)
The film was part of a wave of films released in the 1960s and 1970s that began to deal with the complexities of American Jewish identity. Noted for its detailed reconstruction of Jewish immigrant life in New York at the turn of the century, Hester Street tells the story of Jewish immigrants who come from Europe to the lower east side of New York City in 1896. Yankle, who comes first, quickly assimilates into American culture and becomes Jake. He begins an affair with an American dancer, Mamie, whom he continues seeing after his wife, Gitl, arrives with their son Yossele. Gitl has trouble assimilating, and Jake berates and abuses her, despite her efforts to assimilate. When Gitl finally learns about Jake's affair, they divorce. Gitl marries Bernstein, a faithful traditionalist. By the end of the film, she is fully assimilated, showing her hair, speaking English and walking down the street with Bernstein and Yossele, who has become Joey.

FEBRUARY 18: BONJOUR MONSIEUR SHLOMI. (2003, 95 min.)
Sixteen-year-old Shlomi, who cares for everyone in his life except himself, lives with his jealous and pretentious mother, his soldier brother, and his elderly grandfather. Not doing well in school because of dyslexia, but a gifted cook, Shlomi takes care of most of the household chores, while all the grownups around him are busy with their childish affairs, neglecting him and ignoring his learning problems. He tries to make himself invisible, especially at school, until results on a routine math test catch the attention of his teacher, who suspects that there is a unique gift hidden behind the boy's attempts to remain unnoticed. When the school's headmaster takes the boy under his wing, Shlomi blossoms.

MARCH 18: GOODBYE, COLUMBUS. (1969, 102 min.)
Based on the National Book Award-winning novella of the same name written by Philip Roth, this romantic comedy—a scathing satire of a nouveau riche Jewish family—is about Neil Klugman (Richard Benjamin), an intelligent, working class army veteran and graduate of Rutgers University, who works as a library clerk. He falls for Brenda Patimkin (Ali MacGraw), a wealthy student at Radcliffe College, who is home for the summer. Due to differences in class and assimilation into the American mainstream, they face obstacles from Brenda's family, particularly her mother. Other conflicts include propriety and issues related to premarital sex and the possibility of pregnancy, and Mrs. Patimkin's envy of her daughter's youth. The film is funny and perceptive, and is a real and unusual pleasure.

Humanistic Judaism embraces a human-centered philosophy that combines rational thinking with a celebration of Jewish culture and identity. It affirms that human beings possess the power and responsibility to shape their own lives, and that ethics and morality are not divine in origin but are human responsibilities. Our mission is to meet the needs of humanist, secular Jews as well as their non-Jewish family members/partners and friends in the greater Sarasota and Manatee area.

SECURITY NOTICE
As a security precaution we will no longer list Group contacts’ telephone numbers and e-mail addresses. Please check your Membership Directory for that information.

BIKERS
We will bike on Saturday, December 10 and will meet at 9:45 a.m. and leave to ride at 10:00 a.m. in Venice along the Intercoastal. Will have lunch together after the ride. The scenery is beautiful and we would love to have you join us. We usually ride about 12 miles.
Please contact the CHJ Office at chjsarasota@hotmail.com or 941-929-7771 and Sandy Siegel will contact you.

SPECIAL & SOCIAL GROUPS

HUMANAIRES
Welcome back to all of the snow birds who arrived in November and to those who will be with us in December and January. It will be wonderful to have you singing with us again. The congregation has commented on our more robust sound that is due to the new male voices that have joined (or rejoined) the Humanaires.

We can still use more of you who enjoy blending your voices with others. Our members and conductor Robert Lischetti welcome new folks to the chorus. We are a warm and friendly group and we would love to have you sing with us. There are no auditions. We meet from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m. every Wednesday in the sanctuary at Unity. When you plan on joining us for one of our rehearsals, please let us know in advance so that we can have music ready for you to use. For more information please leave a message at the CHJ office at 941-929-7771 or chjsarasota@hotmail.com and Sandy Cadman will get back to you. You may speak with any member of the chorus as well.

REEL LOVERS
The next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 15, 2017 at 2:00 p.m., movie to be announced. See you soon, but until then, be well. Call Norine and John, or leave a message at the CHJ office 941-929-7771 or chjsarasota@hotmail.com.

JEWISH HISTORY SEMINAR
The world’s largest and most influential Jewish communities are today located in two countries: the United States and the State of Israel. In a departure from its usual format, the focus of the November and December Seminars is on these two Jewish communities. The November meeting concerned the evolution and development of Judaism in the U.S. It was led by professor emeritus, Bill Lakin. His clear and cogent presentation stimulated a wide-ranging discussion by participants.

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, December 14, 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. in Unity Classroom B. All CHJ Members are invited. Bill Lakin has again agreed to lead this Seminar. The session will focus on the history and development of the unique Judaism of the nation and society of Israel. It promises to be a most interesting and informative session. The relevant pages in the Barnavi Atlas are: pp. 220-21, “The Emergence of a New Society”; and 224-25, “The Invention of Modern Hebrew Culture.”).
For information, contact the CHJ Office at 941-929-7771 or chjsarasota@hotmail.com and Stan Katz will call you.

CHAVURAH
Being part of a Chavurah is warm, engaging, stimulating, and fun! You have a chance to really get to know and understand fellow CHJ members as you meet monthly and shape your group. Think of contacting some of your friends to start a new Chavurah. Then contact me and I will be pleased to help you organize your beginning. You will be so happy you did. Call Renee Crames or leave a message at the office 941-929-7771 or chjsarasota@hotmail.com

GROUPS cont’d on page 10
DIGITAL IMAGING GROUP (DIG)  We meet at 3:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of every month at The Fountains Cinema, Parking Lot #4. An assignment is made and members e-mail their required pictures, along with the best picture taken during the past 30 days. Photos are projected onto a large screen and editing software is applied to demonstrate possible enhancements. In addition, tutorials are presented with some guidance for the next month’s assignment. Camera functions and general photography tips are addressed. New members are welcome. For further information contact Jules Altenberg or the CHJ office at chjsarasota@hotmail.com or 941-929-7771.

SUNSETTERS  Ours is always an open group that can accommodate an infinite number of people. We meet on the 3rd Sunday every month on Lido Beach – in front of the pavilion. Our only agenda is the sunset. It is very informal and casual. We arrive about 1-1/2 hours prior to sunset. At this time of year (no daylight savings time) we go out to dinner afterwards at a casual restaurant. Bring chairs, of course. If you’d like to join us contact the CHJ Office at chjsarasota@hotmail.com or 941-929-7771 and Barb Shapiro will call you back.

EVERY LIFE IS A BOOK. When my husband and I joined CHJ, we were extremely impressed with the interesting people who comprise the membership and the fascinating lives they have led. Fleeting conversations at onegs were insufficient and we wanted to learn more about backgrounds, families, careers and areas of expertise. We all have stories to tell, and I am proposing we organize a group to hear them. We are calling the group Every Life is a Book. We will meet monthly to hear one person’s story. Participation is, of course, voluntary. If you are interested please leave a message for Alla Rabinovich at the CHJ office chjsarasota@hotmail.com or 941-929-7771.

WINE GROUPS  There are openings in our Wine Tasting Groups which resumed in October. If anyone wishes to become a CHJ Wino, please contact Joan Fox or leave a message at the CHJ office 941-929-7771 or chjsarasota@hotmail.com.

There is a cult of ignorance in the United States, and there always has been. The strain of anti-intellectualism has been a constant thread winding its way through our political and cultural life, nurtured by the false notion that democracy means that "my ignorance is just as good as your knowledge."  Isaac Asimov, (1920-1992)

BackPacks for Kids Program Update

As a follow-up to our Rosh Hashanah appeal when we collected $4,711 in that one day, another $425 was contributed bringing our total so far to $5,136. We do need $8,000 for the year for the children we are committed to feeding. Whenever you have a few extra dollars or something to celebrate, please send a contribution to All Faiths Food Bank. Mark your check “CHJ BackPacks for Kids.” I know we can do this.

Many thanks to all who have so generously supported our BackPack for Kids Program.  Renee Crames
