Purim Service, The Humanaires & Speaker Paul Golin Speaking on

The Future of Liberal Judaism and How Boomers and Retirees Can Shape It

Following our 10:30 a.m. Purim Service with the voices of the Humanaires, we will welcome Paul Golin, Executive Director of the Society for Humanistic Judaism, who will speak on The Future of Liberal Judaism and How Boomers and Retirees Can Shape It.

For nearly two decades, Paul has helped Jewish organizations and movements better understand the key trends affecting North American Jewry. Paul's writing has appeared in the Forward, the New York Jewish Week, Tablet, and elsewhere. He co-authored the books: Twenty Things for Grandparents of Interfaith Grandchildren to Do (And Not Do) to Nurture Jewish Identity in Their Grandchildren, and How to Raise Jewish Children...Even When You’re Not Jewish Yourself. Paul previously served as associate executive director of Big Tent Judaism/Jewish Outreach Institute. He is the white Ashkenazi half of a “Jewpanese” (Jewish/Japanese) Jewish multiracial household.

Friday, March 17, at 7:30 p.m.

Sabbath – a Day of Rest Service, The Humanaires & Harriet Hendel Speaking on

Robin’s Story: A Life Behind Bars

After our 7:30 p.m. Shabbat Service with the voices of The Humanaires, Harriet Hendel will introduce us to Robin’s Story: A Life Behind Bars.

Hendel has been an educator for most of her life. For 30 years in upstate New York she taught children with learning disabilities. After she retired, she created workshops for teachers, and for the last five years she has developed classes for adults in Sarasota. Her themes always center around our criminal justice system. She is a member of the Board of Directors of The Innocence Project of Florida and frequently speaks about her work. This April, Hendel is co-producing Exonerated with Florida Studio Theatre as a benefit for The Innocence Project of Florida.

In 2009, Hendel read a book of poems and stories written by women at York Correctional Institution in Niantic, Connecticut. One story touched her deeply and she decided to write to the young author. The writer was Robin Ledbetter, incarcerated at age 14 for felony murder and given a 50-year sentence (no parole). Hendel and her husband have "adopted" Robin, who is now nearly 35 years old. They have been visiting her regularly for the past seven years. Robin has won prizes for her creative writing, the most prestigious of which is the PEN prize. Hendel will share Robin's story and some of her poetry.

This Program is Sponsored by Lois Altman
Spring is coming. Everything looks better in the light of the freshness that is evolving. Spring in Florida is so special - the purples, yellows and reds that will soon burst forth, the chattering of the birds and animals, life goes on in such a beautiful way in spite of the swirl of total chaos all around us.

We at CHJ are busy with our lives, enjoying our families and friends as our lives continue to evolve for us in a good way. We have a few members moving or who have moved to new living situations. You will always be notified of their new addresses via e-blast.

This will be the last month with all our wonderful, involved Snowbirds. They will start to head home soon. Some just want to get back north to their families, others want to get back for taxes, and for some the rental runs out on the 1st of April. You will all be missed. For all who are staying until late April or early May, we’re glad to keep you here a bit longer.

This March we have a full month of interesting activities. On March 4, we welcome Paul Golin, the new Executive Director of SHJ. Please mark your calendars for this special day: Saturday, March 4, at 10:30 a.m. All are invited.

Remember to make your reservation for the CHJ 20th year Anniversary Luncheon, to be held at the University Park Country Club on Wednesday, March 8, at 11:30—2:00 p.m. The fee for members and guests is $25.00 per person. Please use the reservation form on page 9 of this issue. The deadline for registration is March 1.

The last of the Winter Movie Series, Goodbye Columbus, will be shown Saturday, March 18, at 4:00 p.m., in Fellowship Hall. Be sure to register with the office via e-mail or phone.

Our one and only fundraiser of the year will be presented on Saturday, March 25, at 4:00 – 5:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Members’ contributions are $20.00 or more per person; nonmembers’ contributions are $25.00 or more per person. Mail-in reservations must be postmarked no later than March 17. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope so we can send you your ticket(s).

No tickets will be mailed out after March 17 due to possible mail delays. Your tickets will be available at the Paid Ticket check-in table on March 25.

Payments postmarked after March 17 will not be honored—you will pay at the door and your check will be returned to you by mail.

There will be a ticket sales table at the entrance to the sanctuary before our Shabbat services on March 4 and 17, in Fellowship Hall at the onegs, and at the movie on March 18. Tickets will not be sold at the Anniversary Luncheon to allow all to enjoy the meal.

On the day of the performance, there will be a Paid Ticket check-in table. There will be a separate table where tickets can be purchased. All tickets sold at the door will be $25.00 for members and nonmembers.

Shalom and Shanti, Alice

The Congregation for Humanistic Judaism proudly presents

Time and Tide by Margo Restrepo
Saturday, March 25, at 4:00—5:30 p.m., at Unity, 3023 Proctor Road, Sarasota

Time and Tide was written by Margo Restrepo – creator of last year’s laugh-filled Purim show. This far-fetched piece of nonsense takes place in the sleepy town of Manashevitz, Florida, in the 1920s. There, Lingam Shnorrer has his not so honorable eye on Shaina Zafdg. Two resident goddesses, incognito, may or may not be up to no good. The action swirls to a satisfying climax with songs you know given new and delightful twists.

Humanistic Judaism embraces a human-centered philosophy that combines rational thinking with a celebration of Jewish culture and identity. It affirms that human beings possess the power and responsibility to shape their own lives, and that ethics and morality are not divine in origin but are human responsibilities. Our mission is to meet the needs of humanist, secular Jews as well as their non-Jewish family members/partners and friends in the greater Sarasota and Manatee area.

Friday, April 21, at 7:30 p.m.

Yom HaShoah Service with the Humanaires & Speaker Arthur Sheridan on

A Liberator Speaks Out

After our 7:30 p.m. Yom HaShoah Service with the voices of the Humanaires, Arthur Sheridan, who was assigned to the US Army’s 20th Armored Division and was among the liberators of Dachau, will talk to us on A Liberator Speaks Out.

“I was 18 at the time. We had not been trained or told anything about concentration camps. We had seen prisoner of war camps ... but none were concentration camps. When we got to Dachau, we didn't know what it was, but there was a terrible odor...Walking into the camp, I was frightened because I had no idea what was happening.”

Sheridan was born in 1925 in Chicago to Polish immigrants. He grew up on the same street as Fannie May, but the Great Depression cost his family their home and wealth. He signed up for his high school’s Army ROTC program and after graduating high school in 1943 he enlisted in the U.S. Army and was trained as a sniper and scout. Sheridan is a member of the American Legion and sits on the Veteran’s Advisory Council for the city of Aurora, Illinois.

The Service is Sponsored by Marilyn Golden

The people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same way in any country.  Hermann Göring, 1893-1946.

MLK Service & Speaker Neil Phillips of Visible Men Academy
Social Action Committee

What Does the Term “Social Action” Mean to You?

It is a broad phrase encompassing many different actions, feelings, and interests. For some, it may involve helping to raise money for research on a remedy or cure for a debilitating or potentially lethal disease. For others social action may mean taking steps to insure the continued existence of women’s rights, voting rights, and the unfettered freedom to practice one’s religion. Such goals may be realized by writing, or e-mailing those in power, particularly those who might want to erase or impede the expression of these rights.

Whatever you believe and whomever you may want to help, there are many ways to do so. Many forms of social action can be performed in one’s own home. Other forms involve working with like-minded others to brainstorm or share ideas. One of the forms is right here at CHJ: join our Social Action Committee, you’ll be pleased you did. To join or if you have questions, contact me, Annette Wolfe, SAC Chair, or leave a message for me at the CHJ office – 929-7771.

Volunteering at Visible Men Academy

CHJ members interested in working with young boys are welcome and needed to participate in the Visible Men Academy program by reading with and/or mentoring students. It is a rewarding and worthwhile experience for both the student and volunteer. The Academy offers two programs:

Literacy on the Lawn: Volunteers from the community are invited to come to the school and share the joy of literacy by reading one-on-one or in small groups.
Dates:  March 3, March 31, May 5, June 2:  2:30-3:30 p.m.

Saturday Success: This is a male-mentoring session in which a male member from the community shares his stories with the boys. After the sharing session there are arts and outdoor activities.
Dates:  March 4, April 1, May 6, June 3:  9:30 - 12 noon.

You may sign-up or receive more information by contacting Dawnyelle Singleton, Director of Staff at www.vmacademy.org or 941-758-7588, or Annette Wolfe, CHJ SAC, Chair.

Final Winter Series Movie: Saturday 4:00—7:00 p.m. March 18 at Unity

Bring your own favorite brown-bag meal that we’ll enjoy with friends after the movie. Bottled water will be provided. Feel free to bring something stronger, if desired.

MARCH 18: GOODBYE, COLUMBUS: (1969, 102 min.) Based on the National Book Award-winning novella written by Philip Roth, this romantic comedy—a scathing satire of a nouveau riche Jewish family—is about Neil Klugman, an intelligent, working class army veteran and graduate of Rutgers University, who works as a library clerk. He falls for Brenda Patimkin, a wealthy student at Radcliffe College, who is home for the summer. Due to differences in class and assimilation into the American mainstream, they face obstacles from Brenda’s family. Other conflicts include propriety, and issues related to premarital sex and the possibility of pregnancy. The film is funny and perceptive, and is a real and unusual pleasure.

A Message to the Oneg Committee

My sincerest and most heartfelt thanks to my Oneg Committee members for stepping up and taking care of the Oneg on February 4. I was incapacitated due to a health challenge, but I have received word that the oneg was wonderful. Thank you to President Alice D’Souza, Rona Gahr, Annette Wolfe, Carol Harris, Sandy Fishman, Fredy Jacobson and Alla Rabinovich. Thanks also to Susan Friedman and Edith Sack who, though not committee members, pitched in in a big way! I salute you... Edie Kaplan

Behind the Scenes...

The accompanying photo collage shows but a very few of the people whose past efforts have gone into producing successful onegs for our Congregation. The smiles indicate that the actual “doing” can be, and is, a pleasurable experience for those performing the work. However – work it IS.

A Saturday morning oneg is the opportunity to meet and greet friends while partaking of a light snack, not a hearty lunch. Neither is it an occasion for doggie bags.

There is never a way of knowing how many will show up for a particular service/program. That means those responsible for planning the oneg have no way of knowing how much food to purchase and prepare. When we are fortunate enough to have an exceptionally good turn-out, fingers are crossed that there will be sufficient quantities for EVERYONE.

While it may have appeared to be a “feeding frenzy” at a recent Saturday oneg, it is doubtful anyone went away hungry. If those at the front of the line would think of those at the rear of the line, and help themselves accordingly, there would be enough for all.

DIGITAL IMAGING GROUP (DIG)  We meet at 3:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of every month at The Fountains Cinema, Parking Lot #4. An assignment is made and members e-mail their required pictures, along with the best picture taken during the past 30 days. Photos are projected onto a large screen and editing software is applied to demonstrate possible enhancements. In addition, tutorials are presented with some guidance for the next month's assignment. Camera functions and general photography tips are addressed. New members are welcome. For further information contact Jules Altenberg.

SUNSETTERS  Ours is always an open group that can accommodate an infinite number of people. We meet on the 3rd Sunday of every month on Lido Beach – in front of the pavilion. Our only agenda is the sunset. We arrive about 1-1/2 hours before sunset. DST begins in March, so we bring our suppers to the beach, and chairs of course. Please mark your calendars for the next few months: March 19th - Sunset 7:41 p.m., April 16th - Sunset 7:55 p.m., and May 21st - Sunset 8:15 p.m.

After careful thought I am going to step down as the leader/organizer of this Interest Group after May. Having facilitated Sunsetters for five years, I think it is time for someone else to have the pleasure/honor. So, if there is anyone who would like to step up ... I am more than willing to train, help set up your group e-mail list, etc. Barbara Shapiro.

CHAVURAH  Being part of a Chavurah is warm, engaging, stimulating, and fun! You have a chance to really get to know and understand fellow CHJ members as you meet monthly and shape your group. Think of contacting some of your friends to start a new Chavurah. Then contact me, Renee Crames, and I will be pleased to help you organize your beginning. You will be so happy you did.

LIFE STORIES  We meet to learn about the fascinating lives of the members of our group. We all have stories to tell. We meet on the 3rd Monday of every month - next meeting is March 20 at 2:00 p.m. at my home. For information, please contact Alla Rabinovich.

JEWISH HISTORY SEMINAR  So as not to conflict with CHJ's 20th Anniversary Lunch, our next meeting will be Wednesday, March 15, at Unity, Classroom B, from 1:00—2:30 p.m.

This session of the Seminar will discuss additional issues affecting the Jews in Europe during the war years from 1942 to 1945 and in the immediate aftermath of the war. The relevant pages in the Barnavi Atlas are: Resistance, pp 236-37; Liberation, pp 238-39; and The Survivors, pp. 240-41. Erwin Segal will lead the discussion. Please come if you can. For further information, please contact Bill Lakin.

For contact information for the members on this page, please refer to your new 2016-2017 member CHJ Directory, or leave a message with the CHJ office: chjsarasota@hotmail.com or 941-929-7771.
BIKERS We will be riding in Palmaire, a very scenic golf course, on Saturday, March 11, and will meet at 9:45 a.m., leaving to ride at 10:00 a.m. We will go to lunch together after the ride or brown-bag it. The scenery is beautiful and we would love to have you join us. We usually ride about 12 miles. For more information, please contact Sandy Siegel.
